

The Perfect Match

“I absolutely loved the place,” offered Mike Garfield '59 as he reflected on his allegiance to St. Paul's School. “It was a perfect match for me,” he went on, “and I made wonderful friends there.”

Loyalty is a trait that unites many St. Paul's School alumni.

As the form of 1959 approached its reunion last spring, Mike mused, “I knew that the 50th is special, and that it would be appropriate for me to do something.” Just what and for how much was the question.

Working with Bob Barr at the School, Mike and MC found a way to make a significant gift to St. Paul's School in conjunction with his 50th. “There is a very real advantage of a Charitable Gift Annuity (CGA), especially if funded with non-income-producing assets,” Mike said. In their case it was a paid-up life insurance policy that not only provided for a generous gift to the School but also provides income to the couple for life.

“The memories of St. Paul's School have stayed with me for 50 years,” Mike concludes. Thanks to this gift from Mike and MC, similar memories will be available to students for generations to come.
